

2017 ANZAC Day

MELBOURNE DAWN SERVICE AND MARCH

General outline

The aim of the Commemoration March was determined in 1925 by the ANZAC Day Commemoration Council (ADCC), under General Sir John Monash, as:

"To enable returned servicemen to re-form the ranks of their wartime units and march to the Cenotaph as a mark of respect for their fallen comrades."

This sentiment is the same for today's Melbourne ANZAC Day Commemoration activities, under the auspices of the current ADCC. Descendants of veterans are encouraged and welcomed to participate, but they will not march in front of veterans.

The March is also an opportunity for the general public to honour and recognise those who have served and who currently serve in the defence of Australia or its interests, especially remembering those who paid the supreme sacrifice or otherwise suffered as a result of their service.

The following banners will be grouped:

- banners of decommissioned ships
- World War II Army Divisions
- World War II RAAF by Theatre of War.

WWII veterans still able to participate in the march will in 2017 move behind their respective association banner, and are encouraged to ride in provided vehicles. A descendant/carer may accompany them. All WWII banners where there are no veterans remaining to march behind them will be massed.

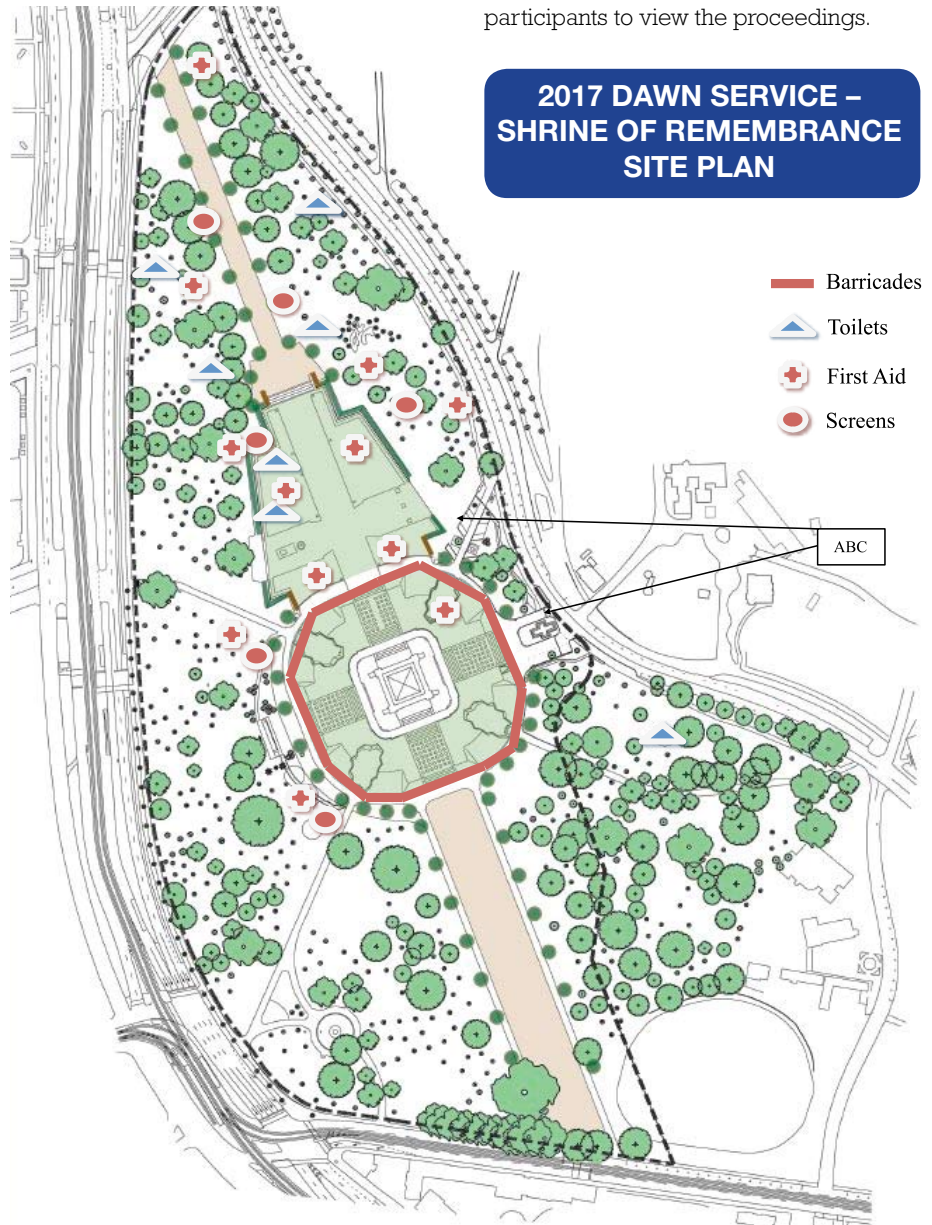

Annual church service

As ANZAC Day, and its associated ceremonies, is about remembrance and honour, why not commence these activities by attending the RSL's annual church service? This year, the church service will be held on Sunday 23 April at St Patrick's Cathedral in Melbourne, commencing at 11.00 am. All veterans are encouraged to attend. The church service is also a poignant reminder to the general public attending the service that this is an opportunity to honour those who serve, and have served, in the defence of Australia.

Dawn Service

The service will commence at 6.00 am at the Shrine of Remembrance. Parking is restricted and it is recommended that you catch public transport. There will be six screens around the Shrine to enable participants to view the proceedings.

Gunfire Breakfast

A traditional Gunfire Breakfast will again be served on St Kilda Road, in front of Victoria Barracks, immediately at the conclusion of the Dawn Service. The breakfast, comprising baked beans, sausage and bread, plus brew, is provided by the Australian Defence Force School of Catering. There will be a gold coin donation to attend the breakfast that will go to the RSL's Veteran's Welfare.

Commemoration March

The purpose of these guidelines is to remind RSL Sub-Branch members, Unit Association members and members of the general public of the criteria, as agreed by the ADCC, for participating in the Melbourne ANZAC Day Commemoration March. It is important that this information is distributed as widely as possible.

There are three ways by which an individual can participate in the March:

1. As a former, or current, member of the Australian Defence Force.
2. As a veteran of a Commonwealth or Allied Force.
3. As a descendant of an Australian, Commonwealth or Allied veteran and who is wearing the campaign medals of their forebears on their right chest.

The Melbourne ANZAC Day Commemoration March is not a parade and therefore no vehicle, animal, weaponry or memorabilia (including historical uniforms) may be included without the prior approval of the March organisers. Escorts to Colours etc., and catafalque parties may carry arms.

As the head of each unit approaches the Eternal Flame, hats are to be removed (by following the unit leader's movements or by order) and the right hand held over the heart and kept in that position until the unit is clear of the Eternal Flame, when the reverse is to be followed. Heads are to be turned right towards the Eternal Flame when passing it. Banners and flags are to be dipped. Defence Force formations are to salute the Eternal Flame as they pass it. Marshals will be placed on the Shrine Forecourt to provide directions for the 'Eyes Right' at the Eternal Flame and the 'Left Wheel' to proceed to the dismissal area past the flags.

Australian veterans

Veteran eligibility to march is based on the criteria to become a Service Member of the RSL: i.e. any person who has served in the Australian Defence Force for a period in excess of six months. Veterans should assemble with one of the service units or association of which they were/are a member.

The choice of where to march is a personal one; however, it is recommended that those who served together should march together, as an act of remembrance and mateship.

As a duty of care, all World War II veterans are required to use a vehicle.

Descendants of Australian veterans

A descendant of a veteran may participate in the March as a carer (one per veteran participating in the March), banner party or flag carrier, regardless of whether they are entitled to be a member of the RSL or not.

Descendants, other than the above, will be directed to march in a place of prominence in front of the Commonwealth and Allies contingent. Only one descendant of a veteran may honour their relative's service by wearing his/her medals on their right breast.

Dress of all descendants should reflect the occasion. The display of photos, other memorabilia, and the pushing of prams and pushers is not permitted.

Commonwealth and Allied veterans

Veterans should be clearly identifiable by their campaign medals and should be at the head of each national group. No medals or awards earned from a nation that was in conflict with Australia or the Commonwealth shall be worn in the Melbourne ANZAC Day March.

Dress should reflect the occasion, i.e. traditional/national costume or dress (including headdress) is not appropriate. Commonwealth and Allied contingents will form up in accordance with the Order of March and under the direction of the March Marshals.

Displays of foreign national flags are restricted to one per group. Flags of a nation that were used when that nation was in conflict with the Commonwealth or Australia are not permitted to be displayed. Display of historical flags or ensigns of countries that no longer exist is inappropriate. Banners are restricted to one per group and are not to contain any political slogans.

Descendants of Commonwealth and Allied veterans

Descendants of veterans are encouraged to participate to honour the fallen at the express invitation of the contingent leader/organiser. Descendants are to march behind the veterans within the national group. Once again, dress should reflect the occasion, i.e. traditional/national costume or dress (including headdress) is inappropriate.

The national group may have no more than 30 descendants of veterans participate, including banner party and flag bearers. The display of photos, other memorabilia, and the pushing of prams and pushers is not permitted.

Veterans who are unable to march

There are two services available for veterans who are unable to march:

- 1) RACV sponsored vehicles: This vehicle service is provided by RACV volunteers at the beginning of the March (if your association has not contacted you, contact ANZAC House for bookings). The service provides pick-up from the home of the veteran and carer; transportation to the Melbourne Assembly Area and then to the Shrine of Remembrance; seating under cover; and transportation home.
- 2) Vehicles participating in the March: As a duty-of-care, all World War II veterans are required to be in a vehicle. For other veterans, if you think you will have difficulty completing the March, you are encouraged to request transport support through your association (if your association has not contacted you, contact ANZAC House for bookings). Veterans travelling in vehicles must remain in the vehicle until the March is completed. The vehicles, which are generously provided by RACV and Car Club volunteers, will be positioned at strategic points in the Assembly Area to provide transport for all World War II veterans.

Vehicles transporting the veterans will travel immediately behind the respective grouped Service and Division Banners for World War II and Unit/Association banner, as applicable.

Assembly

March participants should be in their allocated Assembly Area at least 30 minutes prior to the expected time for their formation to step-off. Participants will need to be aware of the Metro Rail Tunnel Project in the CBD. The Project Managers are working closely with the March organisers to ensure minimal disruption to the March and the Assembly Area.
