

2023 ANZAC DAY INFORMATION

As the sun rose on 25 April 1915, Australian and New Zealand soldiers rowed towards the shores of Gallipoli and into history. Every year since, Australians have gathered to remember their legacy and that of all who have followed in their footsteps.

ANZAC Day is a time to reflect and remember the service and sacrifices of all the men and women who have served gallantly for our country.

This year ANZAC Day falls on a Tuesday, and many may take this as an opportunity for an extended break and a chance to travel. Wherever you find yourself this ANZAC Day, it is important to pause, reflect and remember.

The RSL will be conducting commemoration activities right across Victoria this ANZAC Day. Please visit rslvic.com.au for a comprehensive listing of ANZAC Day activities and services in Melbourne and in towns and suburbs across Victoria.

Thank you to the thousands of RSL volunteers throughout Victoria who are so diligent in organising and conducting commemoration activities on our most important day.

The 2023 ANZAC Church Service will be held from 4pm–5pm on Sunday 23 April at St Paul's Cathedral, Flinders Street. All are welcome.

Dawn Service

The ANZAC Day Dawn Service will commence at 5:30am at the Shrine of Remembrance. It is recommended that you take public transport to the event as parking is restricted. There will be multiple screens around the Shrine to enable participants to view the proceedings.

Breakfast

A number of food trucks will be positioned along St Kilda Road — including in front of Victoria Barracks. Refreshments will be available for purchase from the food trucks at the conclusion of the Dawn Service. The food trucks will continue to operate until about 2pm.

Commemoration March

Melbourne's Commemoration March is designed to enable those who have served Australia and its allies to re-form the ranks of their units and march. Descendants of veterans are encouraged and welcomed participants in the Commemoration March.

The March is also an opportunity for the general public to honour and recognise those who have served and who currently serve in defence of Australia or its interests.

The first veterans proceed down the March route at 8:30am and the March is normally complete by about midday.

Wreath Laying and Commemoration Service

A wreath laying happens at the Shrine of Remembrance immediately after the March concludes.

A Commemoration Service at the Shrine of Remembrance commences after the Laying of Wreaths.

Security

A safe and enjoyable ANZAC Day is RSL Victoria's priority. Victoria Police are actively involved in the planning and management of the event and their attendance at the event has been confirmed.

Safety and First Aid

St John Ambulance first aid points will be located in the Assembly Area, along St Kilda Road, the Shrine Forecourt and the Commemoration March dispersal point — with their main first aid facility located to the east of the Shrine Forecourt. They are supported by dedicated Ambulance Victoria units.

Public Transport

Parking at the Shrine of Remembrance and its surrounds is restricted on ANZAC Day in Melbourne, and it is recommended that you catch public transport.

Melbourne ANZAC Day Commemoration March General Guidelines for Marchers

Advice Regarding the Melbourne Commemoration March

Melbourne's Commemoration March is designed to enable those who have served our country and its allies to re-form the ranks of their units and march to the Shrine of Remembrance as a mark of respect for their fallen comrades.

Descendants of veterans are encouraged and welcomed participants.

The March is also an opportunity for the general public to honour and recognise those who have served and who currently serve in defence of Australia or its interests, especially remembering those who paid the supreme sacrifice or otherwise as a result of their service.

Commemoration March Guidelines

The purpose of these guidelines is to remind RSL Sub-Branch members, Unit Association members, veterans and their families, as well as members of the general public, of the criteria for participating in the Melbourne ANZAC Day Commemoration March.

There are three ways by which an individual can participate in the March:

1. As a former, or current, member of the Australian Defence Force
2. As a Veteran of a Commonwealth or Allied Force
3. As a descendant of an Australian, Commonwealth or Allied Veteran who is wearing the campaign medals of their forebears on the right side of their chest.

Veteran Participation

All veterans are encouraged to join in the Melbourne ANZAC Day March. We welcome participation from anyone who has served and look forward to your presence during this important event.

If you or your group wish to march, please read the following important information regarding veteran participation:

- Veterans who have been issued with medals are asked to wear them when marching
- Veterans using mobility aids are encouraged to participate. Noting that the March route is approximately 2 kilometres. Please note that only one family member or friend may assist you during the March. The safety of all participants during this crowded event is paramount
- Veterans who are unable to physically march are able to request a vehicle and may have a single carer to assist them during the March; please contact RSL Victoria for support
- We encourage family members to march on behalf of a veteran, however the veteran's medals are to be worn on the appropriate right side during the March.

Australian Veterans

Veteran eligibility to march is based on the criteria to become a Service Member of the RSL, that is, any person who has served in the Australian Defence Force for a period of at least one day. Veterans should assemble with one of the service units or association of which they were/are a member.

The choice of where to march is a personal one, however it is recommended that those who served together should march together, as an act of Remembrance and mateship.

Commonwealth and Allied Veterans

Veterans should be clearly identifiable by their campaign medals and should be at the head of each national group. No medals or awards earned from a nation that was in conflict with Australia or the Commonwealth should be worn in the Melbourne ANZAC Day March.

Dress should reflect the occasion, that is, traditional/national costume or dress (including headdress) is not appropriate. Commonwealth and Allied contingents will form up in accordance with the Order of March and under the direction of the March Marshals.

Displays of foreign national flags are restricted to one per group.

Flags of a nation that were used when the nation was in conflict with the Commonwealth or Australia are not permitted to be displayed. Display of historical flags or ensigns of other countries that no longer exist is inappropriate.

Banners are restricted to one per group and are not to contain any political slogans.

Descendants

Descendants of veterans are encouraged and welcomed participants, but they will not march in front of veterans.

Descendants of Australian Veterans

A descendant of a veteran may participate in the March as a carer (one per participating veteran), banner party or flag carrier, regardless of whether they are entitled to be a member of the RSL or not.

Descendants, other than the above, will be directed to march in a place of prominence in front of the Commonwealth and Allies contingent. One descendant only of a veteran may honour their relatives service by wearing his/her medals on their right breast.

Dress of all descendants participating in the March should reflect the occasion and the display of photos or other memorabilia and the pushing of prams and pushers is not permitted, due to safety concerns.

Descendants of Commonwealth and Allied Veterans

Descendants of veterans are encouraged to participate to honour the fallen at the express invitation of the contingent leader/organiser. Descendants are to march behind the veterans within the national group. Once again, dress should reflect the occasion, that is, traditional/national costume or dress (including headdress) is inappropriate.

The national group may have no more than 30 descendants of veterans participate, including banner party and flag bearers.

The display of photos or other memorabilia and the pushing of prams and pushers is not permitted for those participating in the March, due to safety concerns.

General Public

The March is also an opportunity for the general public to honour and recognise those who have served and who currently serve in defence of Australia or its interests. There are barriers along the route of the March and in the Shrine of Remembrance precinct. The barriers are there to keep a clear path for the marchers on ANZAC Day and to ensure the safety of the general public. The general public is welcome and invited to view the March from outside the barriers.

March Assembly

All March participants should be in their allocated Assembly Area at least 45 minutes prior to the expected time for their formation to step-off.

The listed form up times are the latest time we ask marchers to arrive at their allocated position in the CBD, so all marchers are encouraged to arrive well before this time, so they are ready to form up on time.

Assembly areas are indicated in the order of March and map below.

Dismissal of Marchers

As the head of each unit approaches the Eternal Flame, hats are to be removed (by following the unit leader's movements or by order) and the right hand over the heart and kept in that position until the unit is clear of the Eternal Flame, when the reverse is to be followed. Heads are to be turned right towards the Eternal Flame when passing it. Banners and flags are to be dipped. Defence formations are to salute the Eternal Flame as they pass it. Marshals will be placed on the Shrine Forecourt to provide directions for the 'Eyes Right' at the Eternal Flame and the 'Left Wheel' to proceed to the dismissal area past the flags.

Formations/Units are to be dismissed after they have marched past the flag poles on the eastern side of the Shrine Forecourt. They are requested to move well clear of the dismissal area after they have completed the March.

Vehicles Participating in the March

The only vehicles that will be travelling along the March route are the RACV vehicles carrying veterans unable to march. The RACV vehicles will travel as a group along the March route to the Shrine of Remembrance.

Banners in the March

As ANZAC Day is non-political, RSL Victoria kindly requests that all marchers, including Allied Groups, submit any banner designs under which members will march for approval prior to the event. All words on a banner must be in English. This measure is designed only to ensure consistency and appropriateness.

Dress Guideline

The ANZAC Day March is an act of Remembrance and Commemoration; dress should reflect the dignity of the occasion. Jacket with collared shirt and tie for men and equivalent for women should be considered. Children accompanying adults should be of an age to be able to complete the March, and dressed appropriately.

Examples of clothing considered inappropriate for the occasion:

- Clothing displaying racist/derogatory/sexist or profane messaging, imagery or symbolism
- Clothing that is considered to be inappropriately revealing of private body parts or sexually provocative in nature
- High-visibility workwear
- As part of marching attire, any national dress or costume or sporting paraphernalia should not be worn or displayed.

Other Considerations

- The Melbourne ANZAC Day Commemoration March is not a parade and therefore no vehicle, animal, weaponry or memorabilia (including historical uniforms) may be included without the prior approval of RSL Victoria as the March organisers. Escorts to Colours etc., and the catafalque parties may carry arms
- Please do not carry any photographs while marching
- Due to the number of participants and their safety, prams are not permitted in the March
- Please display the Australian National Flag with consideration and respect.

Order of March

The Order of March defines the order and time at which each group will march. It also specifies the assembly location and form up time for each group.

Noting that the Form Up Time listed here is the latest time for march participants to arrive. March participants are encouraged to arrive well before the Form Up Time so they will be ready for the group to form up. And to ensure that the group will be able to start on time.
